The two stage barrels are slightly flared towards the muzzle with silver drop shaped foresights. The breeches are signed along a flat panel and framed by chiselled foliage. Signed rounded lock plates and borderline engraved cocks. The silver wire inlay full length stocks feature silver trigger guards each with foliage finial and engraved with the profile bust of a warrior. The butts of the pistol grips features silver grotesque mask and owners armorial cartouche (Kirby of Hampshire). Silver molded ramrod pipes and iron capped horn tipped ramrods. Due to unforeseen circumstances we did not have possession of these pistols at time of cataloguing. For this reason we do not have colour photographs and relied on the vendors description.
