185 - THOMPSON 1921 S.M.G & FBI CARRY CASE

An original 1921 model of the first 45cal Thompson sub-machine gun, made in 1921 by Colt Patent Firearms for the Auto-ordnance company and sold by Auto Ord., on 3rd June 1921 to George G Rorke, the straw man for the IRA. Discovered in 1921 on board the steamer "East Side" in Hoboken, New Jersey, being smuggled to Ireland. Disappeared from the light of day until 1942 when discovered by the Gardai in a cache of IRA Thompsons in County Mayo Ireland. This is a first model 3 digit serial number (993) "Irish Sword" with the serial number "struck off" by the IRA smugglers in 1921. (See Tracie Hill's American Legend page 55 & 402). Receiver stamped Colt Patent firearms with "AUTO-ORD-CORP" logo on receiver top rather than the "Thompson" logo later used on all subsequent Thompsons. This gun is as rare as they get with unique and indisputable provenance. Metalwork in excellent condition considering its age (92 years) with very good woodwork with few dings. Complete with original (correct) 1920 patent date 20 round magazine and original nickel plated oil bottle and felt washer in the stock, contained in an original FBI style carry case for the 1921 and / or 1927 Thompson. The case manufactured around 1928-1930 by the Swetnam company of Kansas City, Missouri. Opens diagonally to display the gun and its accoutrements in dedicated compartments for the gun, the stock, and complete with a 50 round "L" drum commonly known as a "no number" Colt Navy drum for the 1921 and 1928 Navy Thompson. Drum has original correct nickel plated rotor and has a small dent and scratch on rear otherwise in excellent working condition; all together with a set of 4 original patent date 20 round magazines made for the 1921 Thompson sub-machine gun. Three are "correct" patent date mags and one is the infamous "incorrect" patent date mag. (See Tracie Hill American legend page 343.) These magazines are now extremely rare. In excellent original condition with no rust marks or dings - you won't find better anywhere in the world. Also included is a rare original brass 1921 cleaning rod and a spare parts tin box for the 1921 and 1927 Navy Thompson, containing prescribed spare parts such as firing pin, hammer, springs, extractor, bore brush, breech brush etc, the tin is an exact replica parts tin of which only a limited few were produced. Original spare parts kit tins are impossible to find in the USA and are exceedingly expensive. The FBI carry case is in black leatherette covering with black velour lining. Some wear on lining around magazine compartments but in excellent condition considering its 85 years of age. All hinges and locks in good original nickel plating and all work perfectly but sadly no key after 85 years. Complete with original 1923 Auto Ordnance instruction book. This is the most complete of these exceedingly rare 1921 Thompson we have ever had for sale and a once in a lifetime opportunity for the discerning collector. ExWO&C CLR est. $30,000 - $40,000
